Don't Be Afraid To Fail

You've failed
many times,
although you may not remember.

You fell down
the first time
you tried to walk.
You almost drowned
the first time
you tried to swim, didn't you?

Did you hit the ball the first time
you swung a bat?
Heavy hitters,
the ones who hit the
most home runs,
also strike
out a lot.

R. H. Macy
failed seven times before his store in New York caught on.

English novelist
John Creasey got 753 rejection slips
before he published 564 books.

Babe Ruth struck out
1,330 times,
but he also hit 714 home runs.

Don't worry about failure.

Worry about the chances you miss
when you don't even try.

It is not the critic who counts, not the man who points out how the strong man stumbled, or where the doer of deeds could have done them better.

The credit belongs to the man who is actually in the arena; whose face is marred by the dust and sweat and blood; who strives valiently; who errs and comes short again and again . . . who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions and spends himself in a worthy cause; who, at the best, knows in the end the triumph of high achievement; and who, at the worst, if he fails, at least fails while daring greatly, so that his place shall never be with those cold and timid souls who know neither victory nor defeat.

-Theodore Roosevelt-
